

Join us in celebrating National Volunteer Week

This week marks the annual National Volunteer Week, a special time to celebrate and recognize the incredible efforts of volunteers across the country. The Learning Disabilities Association of Canada (LDAC) wishes to extend a heartfelt thank you to all volunteers within our learning disability ecosystem. Your unwavering commitment and dedication are the backbone of our community's support system.

From those offering a few hours to those deeply involved in long-term projects, each contribution you're making is essential to our mission of supporting individuals with learning disabilities. During this week, we want to recognize your selfless contributions that not only aid in our cause but also enhance your own lives through service.

- Board Members: Your strategic vision and governance guide us forward.
- Committee Members: Your detailed planning and oversight ensure our projects and initiatives meet their goals.
- Partners and Stakeholders: Your collaboration and support enable us to extend our reach and deepen our impact across communities. We value your partnership in driving change and fostering inclusivity.
- Event Organizers and Supporters: Your efforts in bringing our community together are invaluable.

To each and every one of our volunteers: Thank you for giving your time, energy, and expertise to advancing our cause. Your passion for supporting those with learning disabilities truly makes a difference.
